ULTIMATUM TO PIMLICO

Maryland Jockey Club's Rejection of Ross Entries Causes Trouble.

Racing Commission Plainly Says No Racing Unless They Are Accepted.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 12.—The managers of the Pimlico track yesterday made it known that they had refused the stake entries of the Canadian sportsman because of Mr. Bedwell's signature on the entries. At first it was believed that this move was prompted by a desire on the part of the Pimlico people to veto the sanction of the Maryland commission in granting Bedwell the right to act for the Ross stable and to align themselves with the Jockey Club in the matter.

Such is not the case on the authority of William P. Riggs, secretary and general manager of the Maryland Jockey Club. Mr. Riggs stated today that his association refused to recognize Bedwell solely because it desires to treat him as persona non grata at Pimlico and without reference to any moves that might have been made elsewhere in favor of or against the former trainer of the Ross horses.

Speaking of the incident today, Mr. Riggs said: "We are according full recognition to the right of the commission to issue an agent's license to Mr. Bedwell, but we have not lost sight of the fact that it is the right of every association to close its gates to whomsoever it wishes, as in the past, when licenses were issued by the Jockey Club and the Maryland Jockey Club has chosen to place a bar in front of the principal in this case."

In spite of the hopeful aspect given the situation by the optimistic opinion of Mr. Riggs, a more threatening light fell upon the matter as a result of action taken by Messrs. Timanus and Olivier in a commission meeting today. They have notified the directors of the Maryland Jockey Club that the credentials of Bedwell must be respected and that the stake nominations of Commander Ross must be accepted as originally presented by the stable agent, acting under appointment of Commander Ross and confirmation from the entire commission before the resignation of Joseph P. Kenndy.

The commission has returned to the Maryland Jockey Club its check of $108,000 issued for the purpose of cost covering the state tax for a spring meeting at Pimlico. This is tantamount to an announcement that unless the Maryland Jockey Club accedes to the demands of the commission in the Bedwell matter, there will be no racing at Pimlico this spring.

The Ross nominations were mailed by H. G. Bedwell, acting upon the advice of his attorney and following their rejection by the Maryland Jockey Club, when Bedwell presented them in person at the club's downtown office.

There are no new developments in the selection of a successor to commissioner J. P. Kennedy, although the names of R. Bennett Darnell and former judge Charles N. Burke, have been mentioned as possible selections, with the greater number of guessers naming the latter. Commissioner Kennedy's resignation will not be accepted formally until his successor is appointed, but he took no part in the meeting this morning out of which came the ultimatum to the Maryland Jockey Club.

ROSY OUTLOOK FOR WHEELING, W. VA.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 12.—The Wheeling Driving Park is situated on an island between the hills of West Virginia and Ohio and is a pleasing racing plant in every way. The track proper is seventy-five feet all around, plenty of room to start ten horses or more at any of the starting points. One can walk from the city to the track in fifteen minutes. Trolley cars run direct to the track. There is accommodations for the 300 horses and the grandstand will seat 5,000 people. The meeting is backed by the business men and all the best people in the valley are behind the meeting. The track is fast. Horses are working three-quarters in 1:16 easily and five-eighths in 1:04.

There will be twelve mutuel machines in operation and it seems from the interest taken in it the meeting will be a big success. There are 160 horses on the grounds today and the management expects 300 horses by Saturday evening. The following are the officials of the meeting:

F. W. Gerhardy, presiding judge; Jos. M. McGraw, associate judge; Elmer Wilson, starter; Herbert J. Koehl, clerk of the scales; Tom Lynch, paddock judge; Bert H. Swartz, racing secretary, and W. R. Booker, clerk of the course.

WHERE STALLION SOBIESKI STANDS

TORONTO, Ont., April 12.—George Cornell has two imported horses in training at Woodbine Park belonging to Messrs. Dale and Dalziel of Temperanceville, King Township. These gentlemen have at present standing at their farm the imported stallion Sobieski, which was the winter favorite for the Epsom Derby in 1911. Sobieski is by John o'Gaunt, which ran second to St. Amant in the Two Thousand Guineas and the Derby and beat him in the Newmarket Stakes. John o'Gaunt sired Swynford, winner of the St. Leger in record time, and Kenneymore, winner of the Two Thousand Guineas. Hackler's Pride, the dam of Sobieski, was a high-class race mare.

FINE ITALIAN COURSE FOR NAPLES

The principal Italian racing organization, the Societa Agnate di Napoli, has decided to lay out a new race course just outside Naples, which will surpass in completeness and up-to-date arrangements any race course in Italy.

Between $600,000 and $750,000 is to be spent on the new course. The money has been guaranteed and more is to be provided if necessary.

The site chosen is the dried-up lake of Agnane, delightfully situated in the suburbs of Naples, and to which there are splendid means of access.

JUMPING LICENSES OF YEAR

National Association Stewards Pass On Material for Cross-Country Racing.

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 12.—The stewards of the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association met last week and passed on various matters in connection with the coming racing under its jurisdiction.

Sanction was granted the Saratoga Association, the Westchester Racing Association and the Queens County Jockey Club to give steeplechases during their coming meetings.

The stewards appointed to represent the National Steeplechase and Hunt Association at these meetings are: A. Henry Higginson, Belmont Park; J. E. Davis, Aqueduct, and F. S. von Stade, Saratoga. The new rules of racing for steeplechasing as prepared by the rules committee were approved. Douglas Warfield of Philadelphia was elected a member of the association.

The application of George Brooke III. for the reinstatement of the horse Reddest, which he now owns, was approved and ordered accepted by associations under the rules of the association.

The following applications for certificates as gentleman riders were approved subject to the confirmation of the Hunts committee.

George Brooke III., S. L. Larrabee, H. S. Page, Everett Waddey, Jr., George de Kay Gilder, James G. Leiper, Jr., James McAlpin Pyle, Arthur White, C. Mahlon Kline, Gilbert Mather, R. Penn Smith, Jr., W. H. Wildey.

The following licenses were granted:

Trainers—Anthony Allen, John J. Casey, W. H. Henry, G. R. Bryson, Nathan Chappelle, Max Hirsch, S. J. Bush, William Davey, Theodore Huston, Harry King, Harry Rites, Charles L. Snyder, J. Hoawrd Lewis, George A. Saportas, D. R. McDaniel, M. Smart.

Jockeys—S. J. Bush, to ride only horses trained by himself; Harry King, to ride only horses trained by himself; D. Byers, L. Hughes, N. W. Kennedy, J. Rowan, Frank Stacey, W. J. Keating, Thomas V. Fennessey, F. Johnson, C. Mergler, J. K. Russel, S. Stevenson, Isaiah Barrett, B. Harris, William Jones, August Nichlaus, Charles Smoot, B. Haynes.

The following applications for authorized agents were approved:

Anthony Allen for William M. Kerr, Charles L. Appleton for Greentree Stable, Matthew Brady for Dosoris Stable, Matthew Brady for H. W. Maxwell, John J. Casey for Crown Stable, T. J. Donohue for F. Ambrose Clark, W. L. Powers for James Riordan, Harry Rites for Thomas Deford, Harry Rites for J. E. Griffith, George A. Saportas for Harry L. Collins, Silas Veitch for Glen Iver Stable, S. J. Bush for Canterbury Farm, S. J. Bush for James Riordan.

The application of O. Diamond for a jockey license was tabled for future action. The application of A. Fitzgerald for a jockey license was denied.

WHITNEY HOPEFULS FOR NEXT YEAR

That the Whitney stable figures so highly in our racing is no wonder. The Whitney breeding resources are beyond cavil. With stallions among the best of the world and brood mares of the highest type, the Whitney stud is simply bound to send great racers to our tracks annually. The young horses now available for the stable's two-year-old racing of next year number forty-eight. Exquisite breeding is represented by the twenty-two colts and twenty-six fillies. That the latter predominate is well and it would be a just cause for congratulation if all of our breeding farms should reproduce the same condition for a number of years. We are amply supplied with virile and successful stallions for more than our present needs, but lack brood mares. Hence it is no hardship that in this Whitney list the great sire Broomstick has four colts and twelve fillies. This is a fine thing for our breeding of the future. It will be noted that the splendid mare Regret has a son by the young Spearmint sire Chicle. Curiosity will attend its development. In her racing days Regret was a great favorite East and West. Great race mares have frequently proved dire failures in breeding, as witness our Miss Woodford, Firenze, Beldame, Imp and others. Regret was so conservatively raced, however, that her vitality must be unimpaired. She may shine again as a wonderful stud matron.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

H. Schwartz, a lightweight, who rode three winners last year and can make 95 pounds or less, is to do the weight riding for the Oak Ridge Stable this year.

W. J. Both of Lakewood, N. J., is at Belmont Park with seven horses, four three-year-olds and over and three two-year-olds. They are well advanced in condition.

Dunboyne, the Futurity winner of 1918, is rounding into condition at Belmont Park. Friday he worked three-quarters in 1:17⅘ and appears as if he will come to hand early.

King George has granted permission for the stables at Hampton Court to be used for the fifty ponies of the American polo team, which will endeavor to recapture the International Cup in June.

Prince Murat, president of the Societe des Steeplechases de France, has received from H. M. King George V. of England, the Grand Cross of the Order of Victoria, in recognition of his services in developing thoroughbred breeding and racing.

The British champion of 1918, Gainsborough, the book of which is full for three seasons at $2,000, is located at Harwood Lodge. The horse is a gold mine and much of his earnings have been spent on the quarters he and the horses of Lady James Douglas occupy.

In India, Caligula, the St. Leger winner of 1920, has not raced to expectations and is classed as merely a stayer. He is to be returned to England as a sire. Bred as he is by The Tetrarch—Snoot, by Perigord, and a fine individual, Caligula's success in the stud is most probable.

The Rancocas track superintendent and Sam Hildreth's assistant Billy Myer has leased barn 36 at Belmont Park for the Rancocas horses when they come to New York from Jobstown, N. J., dreth's assistant Billy Myer has leased barn 36 and building a kitchen and blacksmith shop to round out the new quarters. It will take some three weeks to finish the improvements.

XALAPA FARM HORSES WORK

Leonardo II. and Stablemates Seen Under Saddle at Churchill Downs.

LOUISVILLE Ky., April 12.—For the first time since their arrival here from Hot Springs, Ark., the older members of the Xalapa Farm stable string, which includes Leonardo II. and Bon Homme, Kentucky Derby candidates, and the five-year-olds Eternal and The Wanderer, were given good gallops at Churchill Downs this morning. Leonardo II., with jockey Andy Schuttinger on him, ran three-quarters of a mile in 1:17, and he was under hard restraint all the way. He demonstrated that he is ready to run and he wanted to go much faster than he was allowed. Schuttinger also galloped Bon Homme, and he worked the same distance in 1:18. It remained for The Wanderer to furnish the real speed of the band when he galloped five-eighths in 1:02⅖ in easy fashion. He ran a fast early pace, covering the first eighth in 11⅖, quarter in 23, three-eighths in 35 and half mile in 48. This horse is ready to race right now and he showed all of the early speed that made him a success as a two-year-old. He has been absent from the races for three years, and no signs of the ailment that caused this long layoff are visible now. Eternal only ran one-half mile and jockey T. Jarvis held him to 51⅖ for the distance. His old injury, also, apparently is a thing of the past, as he is training roundly and will be ready for the races before long. He is carrying quite a big amount of flesh, but James W. McClelland and trainer Kim Patterson say he runs best in this condition.

The Downs track was at its best this morning and numerous fast moves were reported. A number of Derby eligibles were given short work-outs at high speed in preparation for longer gallops tomorrow. The best of these was that of Ben Bolt, which ran a half mile in 49, pulled up. He ran the first quarter in 22⅖ and three-eighths in 34⅘.

Coyne and Brother Batch worked three-eighths in 35⅕, and the former again drew away from his stablemate. Brother Batch did not wear his blinkers today, but his throat hood, which was absent from several work-outs, made its reappearance today. The colt did not "whistle" at all this morning, even after his fast sprint.

Alvin T. Hert showed a good performance in running five-eighths in 1:03 at the Downs. He ran the first three-eighths in 35⅖ and half mile in 48⅕. Billy Barton was given a gallop of five-eighths in 1:02 yesterday.

At Douglas Park trainer J. S. Ownbey indulged Botheration in a mile work-out in 1:51⅖. He was never extended. John Arbor ran a mile in 1:49 at the same track. He was hard held throughout also. Red Legs showed good early speed when he ran three-quarters in 1:17 at the Beechmont track. He ran the first quarter in 23⅖ and half mile in 48⅖.

Frank E. Brown today purchased a pair of two-year-olds from the Xalapa Farm Stable for a reported price of $12,000. One is a bay colt by Vulcain—Neva W., and the other is a brown colt by Rock View—Belgravia. These youngsters wintered in the public training stable of Ahern & Boyle at the Downs. They will remain there for a few days longer and then be turned over to Dr. C. R. Richards, who will look after their immediate training.

Tom Ahearn left for Lexington this afternoon with Pousse Cafe II. and Nancy Wyatt, two candidates for the Ashland Oaks, which belong to Baylor Hickman, a local capitalist. He also took along Joe C. and Wild Flower. Three brood mares, two of which go to John E. Madden's farm, went in the same car. Jockey Lee Mink, who will ride for Ahern on the Kentucky circuit this year, also left for Lexington today.

FIRST EASTERN WINNING YOUNGSTER

The blood lines of Phil Chinn's precocious filly Wishbone, which won at the first time of asking at Bowie last Monday, are excellent ones of the old-fashioned and speedy American families. Wishbone was ready and is a fast beginner. She may be better than her Bowie race, but at any rate is likely to be a respectable figure in the season's racing.

CROWD OF 75,000 SEE SYDNEY CUP WON

At the Randwick course of Sydney, New South Wales, March 28, the race for the $25,000 Sydney Cup, one of the great races of Australia, was run before 75,000 people. It was won by E. L. Steere's Eurythmic, a chestnut colt, 4, by Eudorus—Bob Cherry, a phenomenal winner this season whose total winnings so far are more than $115,000. Eurythmic was the 2 to 1 favorite and won after a fine finish in a long stretch run by half a length from Arch Marella, 9 to 1, with Amazonia, 14 to 1, third. There were seventeen starters in the race and Eurythmic's time was 3:24¾.

WILKINSON JUMPERS' NEW TRAINERS

LONDON, England., April 12.—W. T. Wilkinson, the American owner of St. Louis, U. S. A., who is racing a considerable stable in France, the jumpers of which have been trained by Galen Brown, one of McCormick's assistants in the Macomber stable, has sent that division of his stable to Mainsons-Laffitte to the charge of D. Reiff. Brown is quartered at La Morlaye and will continue his work there. The Wilkinson jumpers include the American Papp, which is in the first division of obstacle racers, Kingdon II., The Sachem, War Rocket, War Duty, War Paint, Alias, Sleepy Hollow and Twiford.

MYTHOLOGY WINS AGAIN

Meets and Defeats Night Raider for Second Time at Bowie.

Kirah and Tan II Repeaters—Old Koh-i-noor Furnishes Big Surprise.

BOWIE, Md., April 12.—The three-year-old Mythology once more triumphed over Night Raider when he led home the Clopton racer in the Whirlaway Purse, the main contest of today's program at Prince George Park. On the occasion of their previous meeting Mythology was ridden by Ensor, to whom was given much of the credit for that victory. However, Mythology won today without the assistance of Ensor, who could not make the weight. The Zeus colt began slowly, but soon moved up close to the leaders, and when King's Champion tired after setting the early pace he raced away in the lead with a fine display of speed. He held on gamely when Night Raider challenged and passed the judges three-quarters of a length in front of the favorite. The latter ran a creditable race and would have made it more interesting for the winner with better racing luck. He dropped back right after the start and was in close quarters to the stretch turn. Once clear he closed with terrific speed, too late, however, to overtake the flying leader.

Veiled Colleen, a daughter of The Finn—Scenery, which won her only start at New Orleans, made her eastern debut in the first race, and with Ensor to guide her scored an impressive victory. She led all the way, displaying a high order of speed to win by three lengths, with Radical second and Black Track third.

Coltiletti's vigorous riding and expert handling of North Shore enabled the Martinet filly to beat Amackassin in the second race. The latter was favorite and might have reversed positions with the winner had he not been the victim of considerable early interference. He finished fast and gamely when clear, but too late to be of any avail.

Kirah was the third filly to win this afternoon and her victory in the third race was easily achieved. She was ridden by Ensor and showed the way to her eleven opponents, leading by a safe margin throughout.

Old Koh-i-noor upset calculations in the sixth race when she beat the odds-on favorite Benevolent by a head in a driving finish, the result of which was in doubt until the final stride. The California-bred mare was right on edge, led all the way and gamely held on when challenged.

TANTALUS IN RUNNING MOOD.

Tantalus, which was practically left at the post in his previous race, was in a running mood today and despite much bad racing luck earned a close decision in the fifth race, outgaming Penelope in a hard-fought finish.

Tan II. repeated his success of a few days ago when he accounted for the closing dash, in which he wrested the lead from Toss Up in the stretch and drew away to win by a safe margin.

Edwin Burke, general manager of the Harford County Agricultural Association, is put out over the circulation of rumors of widespread coughing among the horses quartered at Havre de Grace and is refuting the seriousness of the epidemic. Some of the thoroughbreds have been affected, but the ailment is not general, according to Mr. Burke.

W. Shields purchased privately for his account the horse Gen. Cadorna from S. Louis. The latter claimed this racer from the Willow Tree Stable, for which Mr. Shields trains.

Three cars of horses are scheduled to leave here Friday night for Wheeling, W. Va. C. S. Wilson, George Carter, R. Scully, R. Haymaker and W. A. Carr have made reservations in the cars.

Dick Counsellor is an arrival from New York.

Jockey L. Aron left the employ of F. Farrar without permission. Horsemen are warned not to harbor him.

J. A. Reid will make engagements for jockey H. Gregory at Havre de Grace. His contract is held by Patsy Bornman, but first call on his services has been by H. B. Holmes during the stay of his employer at Wheeling, W. Va.

H. G. Bedwell and Carroll Shilling took in the racing this afternoon. Mr. Bedwell would make no statement concerning the controversy between the Maryland Racing Commission and the Maryland Jockey Club or in connection with the probable stand to be taken by Commander Ross when he arrives.

E. L. Snyder is about again and making rapid progress after a spell of illness brought about by ptomaine poisoning contracted at Shreveport.

Jockey Ensor has received an offer from the Thorncliffe Stable to ride one of its candidates in the King's Plate at Woodbine Park on opening day.

The stewards issued the following notice today: "For entering horses in names of persons other than the rightful owners trainer H. E. York and F. Byer are suspended for the remainder of the meeting and the privileges of the grandstand and paddock are denied to both."

Jean Bullant was claimed out of the third race by J. Kennedy for $1,290.

BIGHEART'S WORK FOR MATCH RACE

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 12.—Lewis Garth yesterday reported that his father's colt, Bigheart, which is to run in the Pimlico match with Commander Ross' Elemental, worked three-eighths with Ted Rice in the saddle at Pimlico, Thursday, in 35. The work was from the head of the stretch to the seven-eighths post. It turns out that the match is for $10,000 a side instead of $5,000 a side as stated in last week's Daily Racing Form. The Garth party, without full knowledge of the quality of Elemental, consider the match already won.

King George has granted permission for the stables at Hampton Court to be used for the fifty ponies of the American polo team, which will endeavor to recapture the International Cup in June.

Prince Murat, president of the Societe des Steeplechases de France, has received from H. M. King George V. of England, the Grand Cross of the Order of Victoria, in recognition of his services in developing thoroughbred breeding and racing.

The British champion of 1918, Gainsborough, the book of which is full for three seasons at $2,000, is located at Harwood Lodge. The horse is a gold mine and much of his earnings have been spent on the quarters he and the horses of Lady James Douglas occupy.

In India, Caligula, the St. Leger winner of 1920, has not raced to expectations and is classed as merely a stayer. He is to be returned to England as a sire. Bred as he is by The Tetrarch—Snoot, by Perigord, and a fine individual, Caligula's success in the stud is most probable.

The Rancocas track superintendent and Sam Hildreth's assistant Billy Myer has leased barn 36 at Belmont Park for the Rancocas horses when they come to New York from Jobstown, N. J., dreth's assistant Billy Myer has leased barn 36 and building a kitchen and blacksmith shop to round out the new quarters. It will take some three weeks to finish the improvements.

XALAPA FARM HORSES WORK

Leonardo II. and Stablemates Seen Under Saddle at Churchill Downs.

LOUISVILLE Ky., April 12.—For the first time since their arrival here from Hot Springs, Ark., the older members of the Xalapa Farm stable string, which includes Leonardo II. and Bon Homme, Kentucky Derby candidates, and the five-year-olds Eternal and The Wanderer, were given good gallops at Churchill Downs this morning. Leonardo II., with jockey Andy Schuttinger on him, ran three-quarters of a mile in 1:17, and he was under hard restraint all the way. He demonstrated that he is ready to run and he wanted to go much faster than he was allowed. Schuttinger also galloped Bon Homme, and he worked the same distance in 1:18. It remained for The Wanderer to furnish the real speed of the band when he galloped five-eighths in 1:02⅖ in easy fashion. He ran a fast early pace, covering the first eighth in 11⅖, quarter in 23, three-eighths in 35 and half mile in 48. This horse is ready to race right now and he showed all of the early speed that made him a success as a two-year-old. He has been absent from the races for three years, and no signs of the ailment that caused this long layoff are visible now. Eternal only ran one-half mile and jockey T. Jarvis held him to 51⅖ for the distance. His old injury, also, apparently is a thing of the past, as he is training roundly and will be ready for the races before long. He is carrying quite a big amount of flesh, but James W. McClelland and trainer Kim Patterson say he runs best in this condition.

The Downs track was at its best this morning and numerous fast moves were reported. A number of Derby eligibles were given short work-outs at high speed in preparation for longer gallops tomorrow. The best of these was that of Ben Bolt, which ran a half mile in 49, pulled up. He ran the first quarter in 22⅖ and three-eighths in 34⅗.

Coyne and Brother Batch worked three-eighths in 35⅕, and the former again drew away from his stablemate. Brother Batch did not wear his blinkers today, but his throat hood, which was absent from several work-outs, made its reappearance today. The colt did not "whistle" at all this morning, even after his fast sprint.

Alvin T. Hert showed a good performance in running five-eighths in 1:03 at the Downs. He ran the first three-eighths in 35⅖ and half mile in 48⅕. Billy Barton was given a gallop of five-eighths in 1:02 yesterday.

At Douglas Park trainer J. S. Ownbey indulged Botheration in a mile work-out in 1:51⅖. He was never extended. John Arbor ran a mile in 1:49 at the same track. He was hard held throughout also. Red Legs showed good early speed when he ran three-quarters in 1:17 at the Beechmont track. He ran the first quarter in 23⅖ and half mile in 48⅖.

Frank E. Brown today purchased a pair of two-year-olds from the Xalapa Farm Stable for a reported price of $12,000. One is a bay colt by Vulcain—Neva W., and the other is a brown colt by Rock View—Belgravia. These youngsters wintered in the public training stable of Ahern & Boyle at the Downs. They will remain there for a few days longer and then be turned over to Dr. C. R. Richards, who will look after their immediate training.

Tom Ahearn left for Lexington this afternoon with Pousse Cafe II. and Nancy Wyatt, two candidates for the Ashland Oaks, which belong to Baylor Hickman, a local capitalist. He also took along Joe C. and Wild Flower. Three brood mares, two of which go to John E. Madden's farm, went in the same car. Jockey Lee Mink, who will ride for Ahern on the Kentucky circuit this year, also left for Lexington today.

FIRST EASTERN WINNING YOUNGSTER

The blood lines of Phil Chinn's precocious filly Wishbone, which won at the first time of asking at Bowie last Monday, are excellent ones of the old-fashioned and speedy American families. Wishbone was ready and is a fast beginner. She may be better than her Bowie race, but at any rate is likely to be a respectable figure in the season's racing.

CROWD OF 75,000 SEE SYDNEY CUP WON

At the Randwick course of Sydney, New South Wales, March 28, the race for the $25,000 Sydney Cup, one of the great races of Australia, was run before 75,000 people. It was won by E. L. Steere's Eurythmic, a chestnut colt, 4, by Eudorus—Bob Cherry, a phenomenal winner this season whose total winnings so far are more than $115,000. Eurythmic was the 2 to 1 favorite and won after a fine finish in a long stretch run by half a length from Arch Marella, 9 to 1, with Amazonia, 14 to 1, third. There were seventeen starters in the race and Eurythmic's time was 3:24¾.

WILKINSON JUMPERS' NEW TRAINERS

LONDON, England., April 12.—W. T. Wilkinson, the American owner of St. Louis, U. S. A., who is racing a considerable stable in France, the jumpers of which have been trained by Galen Brown, one of McCormick's assistants in the Macomber stable, has sent that division of his stable to Mainsons-Laffitte to the charge of D. Reiff. Brown is quartered at La Morlaye and will continue his work there. The Wilkinson jumpers include the American Papp, which is in the first division of obstacle racers, Kingdon II., The Sachem, War Rocket, War Duty, War Paint, Alias, Sleepy Hollow and Twiford.

MYTHOLOGY WINS AGAIN

Meets and Defeats Night Raider for Second Time at Bowie.

Kirah and Tan II Repeaters—Old Koh-i-noor Furnishes Big Surprise.

BOWIE, Md., April 12.—The three-year-old Mythology once more triumphed over Night Raider when he led home the Clopton racer in the Whirlaway Purse, the main contest of today's program at Prince George Park. On the occasion of their previous meeting Mythology was ridden by Ensor, to whom was given much of the credit for that victory. However, Mythology won today without the assistance of Ensor, who could not make the weight. The Zeus colt began slowly, but soon moved up close to the leaders, and when King's Champion tired after setting the early pace he raced away in the lead with a fine display of speed. He held on gamely when Night Raider challenged and passed the judges three-quarters of a length in front of the favorite. The latter ran a creditable race and would have made it more interesting for the winner with better racing luck. He dropped back right after the start and was in close quarters to the stretch turn. Once clear he closed with terrific speed, too late, however, to overtake the flying leader.

Veiled Colleen, a daughter of The Finn—Scenery, which won her only start at New Orleans, made her eastern debut in the first race, and with Ensor to guide her scored an impressive victory. She led all the way, displaying a high order of speed to win by three lengths, with Radical second and Black Track third.

Coltiletti's vigorous riding and expert handling of North Shore enabled the Martinet filly to beat Amackassin in the second race. The latter was favorite and might have reversed positions with the winner had he not been the victim of considerable early interference. He finished fast and gamely when clear, but too late to be of any avail.

Kirah was the third filly to win this afternoon and her victory in the third race was easily achieved. She was ridden by Ensor and showed the way to her eleven opponents, leading by a safe margin throughout.

Old Koh-i-noor upset calculations in the sixth race when she beat the odds-on favorite Benevolent by a head in a driving finish, the result of which was in doubt until the final stride. The California-bred mare was right on edge, led all the way and gamely held on when challenged.

TANTALUS IN RUNNING MOOD.

Tantalus, which was practically left at the post in his previous race, was in a running mood today and despite much bad racing luck earned a close decision in the fifth race, outgaming Penelope in a hard-fought finish.

Tan II. repeated his success of a few days ago when he accounted for the closing dash, in which he wrested the lead from Toss Up in the stretch and drew away to win by a safe margin.

Edwin Burke, general manager of the Harford County Agricultural Association, is put out over the circulation of rumors of widespread coughing among the horses quartered at Havre de Grace and is refuting the seriousness of the epidemic. Some of the thoroughbreds have been affected, but the ailment is not general, according to Mr. Burke.

W. Shields purchased privately for his account the horse Gen. Cadorna from S. Louis. The latter claimed this racer from the Willow Tree Stable, for which Mr. Shields trains.

Dick Counsellor is an arrival from New York.

Jockey L. Aron left the employ of F. Farrar without permission. Horsemen are warned not to harbor him.

J. A. Reid will make engagements for jockey H. Gregory at Havre de Grace. His contract is held by Patsy Bornman, but first call on his services has been by H. B. Holmes during the stay of his employer at Wheeling, W. Va.

H. G. Bedwell and Carroll Shilling took in the racing this afternoon. Mr. Bedwell would make no statement concerning the controversy between the Maryland Racing Commission and the Maryland Jockey Club or in connection with the probable stand to be taken by Commander Ross when he arrives.

E. L. Snyder is about again and making rapid progress after a spell of illness brought about by ptomaine poisoning contracted at Shreveport.

Jockey Ensor has received an offer from the Thorncliffe Stable to ride one of its candidates in the King's Plate at Woodbine Park on opening day.

The stewards issued the following notice today: "For entering horses in names of persons other than the rightful owners trainer H. E. York and F. Byer are suspended for the remainder of the meeting and the privileges of the grandstand and paddock are denied to both."

Jean Bullant was claimed out of the third race by J. Kennedy for $1,290.

BIGHEART'S WORK FOR MATCH RACE

NEW YORK, N. Y., April 12.—Lewis Garth yesterday reported that his father's colt, Bigheart, which is to run in the Pimlico match with Commander Ross' Elemental, worked three-eighths with Ted Rice in the saddle at Pimlico, Thursday, in 35. The work was from the head of the stretch to the seven-eighths post. "It turns out that the match is for $10,000 a side instead of $5,000 a side as stated in last week's Daily Racing Form. The Garth party, without full knowledge of the quality of Elemental, consider the match already won.

Equivalent booking odds—Tantalus, 430 to 100 straight, 170 to 100 place, 85 to 100 show; Penelope, 460 to 100 place, 210 to 100 show; Pastoral Swain, 90 to 100 show.

Winner—B. g. by Knight of the Thistle—Tantalize, by Meddler (trained by W. A. Burttschell; bred by Mr. R. H. McC. Potter).

Went to post at 4:49. At post 1 minute. Start fair and slow. Won driving; second and third the same. TANTALUS was shuffled back soon after the start and moved up fast before entering the stretch, but came extremely wide and lost the lead, then finished gamely when straightened out and wore the leaders down in the closing strides to win drawing clear. PENELOPE displayed much speed and raced past ROISTERER on the backstretch, but was tiring in the final drive. PASTORAL SWAIN was a forward contender throughout and made a game finish. FROGTOWN finished fastest of all. ROISTERER displayed the most speed for a half mile and tired. ESCARPOLETTE had a poor start. SOLDAT DE VERDUN was eased up when beaten.

Overweights—Roisterer, 1½ pounds.

TWO $10,000 MATCH COLTS

Ancestry of Bigheart and Elemental, the Pimlico Sporting Race Pair.

The two-year-old $10,000 a side match colts of Commander Ross and William Garth are both bred in the purple, both solid bays in color, and both fine individuals which satisfy their owners in their behavior and work. It will be a most interesting and sporting contest.

Here are the ancestral tables of the pair:

MANY WHITNEY YEARLINGS

Produce of Famous Stud Last Year Number Forty-eight Notably Bred Youngsters.

The full list of the yearlings of Harry Payne Whitney's establishment is of much interest. The youngsters are worthy brothers and sisters of notable performers, though those by Chicle, Pennant and Thunderer are novelties to the turf. These youngsters are above the average in general quality. All are entered in the Kentucky futures.

Little Maudie showed good speed and is about ready. Sandy Beal was only cantering. Yaphank showed a good turn of speed. Ultra Gold at top of his best form and never better. Jago showed that he can start fast from the barrier; went first quarter in 23. Sacajawea is fast, just cantered. Nohant was going easy all the way. Comme Ci is fit and ready to win. Toadstool is training splendidly and about ready. Tout Or was just cantering all the way. Pueblo showed brilliant speed and did his work easily. War Club's work was good and even all the way; he is ready.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES

C. C., St. Louis, Mo. A wager on Humma in race 53507, made away from the track, would have been a loser.

J. O'N., Chicago, Ill. The Bowie record for a mile and a half is 2:39⅘. The 2:39⅕ referred to was a misprint.

G. A. M., Chicago, Ill. Geldings are eligible to the Kentucky and Latonia Derbys. They are barred from some of the eastern stake races.

G. M. K., Cincinnati, O. In the race inquired about Tan II. and Orenzo were equal favorites to win, but Tan II. was the favorite place and show.

C. N., Detroit, Mich. You are not alone in your wish to know why John Loftus was refused a license to ride. Only the stewards of the Jockey Club know why and they won't tell.

KING ALFONSO ACTIVE IN RACING

The Duke of Toledo, the racing nom de plume of the King of Spain, is well represented in the chief spring events at San Sebastian. In the Gran Premio de Primavera he has entered Brabant and Roman. That race is of the value of 50,000 pesetas. In the Premio del Casino, 20,000 pesetas, he has engaged Roman and the three-year-old Tambour, and in the Premio del Jockey Club, 20,000 pesetas, all the three horses figure in the entry.
